THIRD ANNUAL VINTAGE CHARLOTTE SUMMER MARKET TO POP UP JUNE 14th

VINTAGE AND HANDMADE SHOPPING EXPERIENCE WITH 50+
VENDORS TO OCCUR JUNE 14, 2014 AT THE FILLMORE

CHARLOTTE (May 19, 2014) – Vintage Charlotte (known by friends and fans as simply: VTGCLT) will be popping up for their third annual Summer Market. The Summer Market will occur on June 14, 2014 at The Fillmore Charlotte. The Vintage Charlotte Summer Market is an indoor event and will include 50+ vendors of vintage, antique and handmade goods including housewares, furniture, decor, clothing, jewelry and more. In addition to handmade and vintage shopping, there will be food and drink available from local favorites: Not Just Coffee, King of Pops and Juan Taco Truck.

Two years ago, Vintage Charlotte held their very first event, the first Summer Market. In two years, Vintage Charlotte's markets have grown exponentially. Vendor space at the market is highly competitive, many shoppers line up before the doors open to get first pick of all of the hard-to-find vintage goods and the markets now draw upwards of 2,000 customers in a single day.

Founder of Vintage Charlotte, Amy Herman, states that, "Vintage Charlotte is really about highlighting some of the many amazing things going on right here in Charlotte. I try to use our markets to highlight some of the best in local small business, local food and drink and contribute to a sustainable economy right here in our own backyard".

Admission to Vintage Charlotte's Summer Market is free of charge, but if you want to beat the crowds and have first pick at everything there is an early bird admission of $5 which gets you in an hour before the doors open to the general public. Doors open at 11am, 10am for early birds.
