SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW: AN EVENING OF ARTISAN WEDDING INSPIRATION

CHARLOTTE (February 3, 2015) – Vintage Charlotte will be popping up this month with their 3rd annual wedding event, Something Old, Something New, from 6-8pm on February 23, 2015 at Sugar Creek Brewing. This alternative take on a bridal expo will feature all local wedding vendors, including small businesses, vintage and handmade options. This cocktail hour event will transform Sugar Creek Brewing into a mini showroom where engaged couples can meet and greet with vendors as well as see demonstrations of their talent. Brides-to-be plus the whole wedding party will enjoy tastings from Passion8 and Edible Art Charlotte.

Admission to Vintage Charlotte's Something Old, Something New is $5 in advance (available through www.vintage-charlotte.com) and $8 at the door. Light fare is included in the admission price; swag bags to be given to the first 50 guests.
